What's in a Name?

By David I. Roberts, President/CEO, Lutheran Homes Society

It is strange, but apparently true.

Many people don't recognize our name, but they recognize the services our ministries provide.

The fact is, the organization we now call Lutheran Homes Society has been serving children and adults in our community for nearly 150 years.

Many people remember us by another name. Quite often they remember the Lutheran Orphans' and Old Folks'

You may be aware of our youth group homes in the Toledo area or our Asperger's Program for youth in Henry County.

LINCS is our community services program that "links" seniors with needed services to help them remain independent.

Each year we touch the lives of nearly 2,500 children and adults of all faiths in our communities.
